

HOW CAN YOU HELP?

Social categorizations are globally problematic, affecting all sectors of society regardless of socioeconomic status, race, ethnicity, religion or nationality. This means no community is exempt from societal divisions which create violence, and diminish the responsibility of confrontation. At the same juncture, this consequentially causes communities across the world uphold unjust hierarchical factions and collectively maintain universal conflicts. RHF provides a critical lens to these issues and welcomes your participation.

YOU CAN TAKE PART AND MAKE AN IMPACT, LOCALLY AND GLOBALLY. HELP US SPREAD AWARENESS THROUGH :

DONATIONS

Artistic spaces have the capacity to nourish us through uncertain times, offering solace and inspiration. Our aim is to open the dialogue of neutrality, and send out a loud call to action for policy makers world-wide. Forming connections between people and varying perspectives in the arts is only made possible through your support.

Our foundation immediately makes use of donor gifts in boundary-breaking practices that center artists, engage communities, and embrace collective action. We benefit from various methods of tax-deductible donations, whether you are an individual, family foundation, corporation, trusts, or somewhere in between. To achieve our mission, we receive contributions from a constellation of donors whose generosity is critical in shaping our future and enabling us to realize our artists' visions.

Your generosity allows our foundation to present world-class exhibitions, ensures the longevity of its social mission, potentially developing educational and therapy programming, and grants the accessibility of the art to a wider audience. We thank our donors for their loyalty and enthusiasm. We also welcome

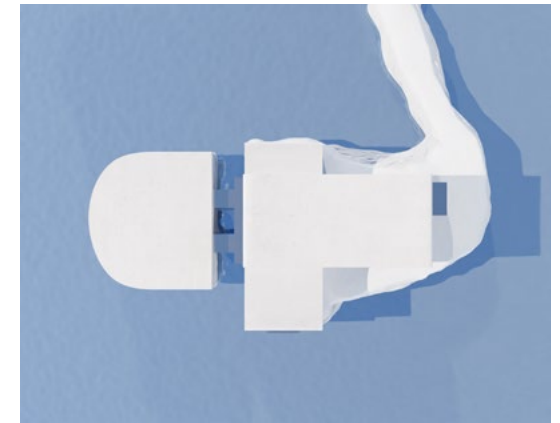

ARTWORK OFFER

We are always open to donations of works of art in order to further support its mission into an ideology. Our foundation acts as an impartial space, making-visible the vast extent of divisions of inequalities in society. We appreciate donations of artworks to help with raising awareness of our inclusive philosophy, rejoicing in freedom of the self.

Prospective donors can submit a proposal for a gift of art including a description of the artwork, photos and provenance (if possible). Such offers are subject to a selection process and each artwork donation offer will be submitted to the Curatorial team for approval. If the offer is accepted, our representative will contact the prospective donor to inform them of the next steps to formalize its acquisition.

therapy programming, and grants the accessibility of the art to a wider audience. We thank our donors for their loyalty and enthusiasm. We also welcomes additional forms of planned gifts, including corporate offerings, retirement plans, stocks, and restricted bequests. Your donations provide support for all aspects of our mission, from mounting innovative exhibitions to facilitating accessibility to all, and making a difference every day.

VENUES SOURCING

Showing the exhibitions in your local community will aid in opening the inclusive conversation of neutrality, raising awareness of critical thinking and an unconditioned state of being. We stirs discussion and provoke action among the powerful players within society. We build the installations by applying modular and flexible modalities, so it can fit a variety of differing environments. We love to hear from the public and always appreciate help in arranging venues for exhibitions, by connecting us with individuals and organizations.

We invites correspondence with museums, art galleries, art festivals and media for the potential accommodation of exhibitions. We are also calling out to civil society organizations, academics, activists, artists and others who are working on social issues, to help us broaden the discourse surrounding proj-

CONTRIBUTIONS

Your kind contributions will help us sustain our mission in promoting awareness and calling for immediate action. Every contribution holds an impact in maintaining and operating our platforms and funding our upcoming projects. In order to continuously expand our network and scout for potential exhibition tours, collaborations develop exhibition's related themes with the inclusion and uplifting of artists from around the world.

Our foundation is currently in collaboration with the non-profitable UNISEXLAB.COM, you can contribute by purchasing from their curated selection, all profits will be allocated to our upcoming projects.

We invites correspondence with museums, art galleries, art festivals and media for the potential accommodation of exhibitions. We are also calling out to civil society organizations, academics, activists, artists and others who are working on social issues, to help us broaden the discourse surrounding projects by offering collaborations and exhibition visits.

CONTACT

For additional sponsorship opportunities or other ways to get involved, further information on the procedure for gifting artworks, help in arranging a venue for an exhibition or other contributions - please contact us : contact@radhouranifoundation.com